

PLEASE READ IN BETHEL MEETING:

LIBRARIAN'S BOOK REPORT, SHORT STORY, POETRY, ESSAY, CONTEST 2009-2010

Daughters may enter each of the categories listed above only one time. Your entry MUST be your original work. You may submit school work in any category except the ESSAY contest. Your ESSAY submission must answer one of the prompts below.

Each category will be divided into three classes for judging purposes. They are:

10-12 year olds

13-15 year olds

16-20 year olds

Each class of each category will be awarded first, second and third places.

ESSAY TOPICS:

- 1. How is Job's Daughters relevant to the youth of America in 2010?
- 2. How would you change Job's Daughters? Create a plan to implement the change, why the change is necessary, and what is the goal of the change.
- 3. How do the lessons of Job's life pertain to your own life?

All submissions need to be typed or neatly printed. Do not put your name, Bethel Number, or any other identifying information on your work. Fill out the appropriate entry form and attach it to the top of your entry.

Bethel Guardian Treasurers are encouraged to promote, collect and mail entries on time. How about one entry from each and every Jobie!!

POSTMARKS AFTER JUNE 21, 2010 CANNOT BE ACCEPTED.

Alice Elliott, Grand Librarian
4106 Lancaster Ring Road
Fredericksburg, VA 22408
703-609-2852